

Western Weight and Measures Association 2019 Annual Conference

June 24, 2019

Dear WWMA Members and Interested Parties:

The Utah Department of Agriculture and Food's Weights & Measures Program is proud to host the 2019 Annual WWMA Conference which will take place September 8-12, 2019, in Park City, Utah. Park City is a historic mining town, winter playground, and outdoorsman's dream. You may want to take a ride of a lifetime on the Olympic bobsled track or visit a museum and shops on historic Main Street. A free bus and trolley system are available to get you from place to place in Park City.

The conference will be held at the NewPark Resort, Park City, Utah.

Hotel: NewPark Resort

1456 Newpark Boulevard

Park City, Utah 84098

Phone Reservations: (435) 649-3600 x 2

Group Name: Western Weights and Measures Association

Special room rates have been arranged for the conference: $130/NT + tax and fees.

Hotel Reservation Deadline: August 15, 2019.

Conference Registration Deadline: Please return your registration form (see registration form) by August 15, 2019. The conference registration fee is $350.00. This fee includes your $25.00 annual membership dues, the outing to the Heber Valley Railroad Tuesday afternoon, and the banquet planned for Wednesday evening. You are welcome to bring a guest to these events as well. Additional charges for guests, where applicable, are shown on the registration form.

NIST Training: This year the WWMA will co-host a NIST Retail Motor Fuel Dispenser seminar to run at the same time as the WWMA conference. The RMFD seminar registration fee is $150. This fee includes outing to the Heber Valley Railroad and the Wednesday evening banquet. Class size is limited to 20, so early registration is recommended. WWMA members will have until July 29, 2019 to sign up for the seminar before it is opened to outside jurisdictions. Please see the "NIST RMFD Training Announcement" attachment for more information regarding registration procedure, training seminar agenda, requirements, and registration form. Online payment option is not available for training seminar registration fees. Attendees may send payment in advance or pay at the registration table. We will only accept cash or check at the registration table.

Meeting Documents will be available on our website.

Optional Daily Registration: This year we are offering "Single Day Registration" for those who may be able to attend only one day of the conference. Single daily registration is $100. Single Day registration includes all professional, technical, and general sessions scheduled for the date selected. Special events are not included in the daily registration fees. Please see the attached "Registration Form" for event fees and to register for a specific day.

If you have any questions, please contact Bill Rigby at (801) 538-7153 or brigby@utah.gov. I look forward to seeing all of you in Park City.
